GEORGIA CHARITABLE SOLICITATIONS ACT OF 1988, AS AMENDED PAID SOLICITOR INFORMATION RELEASE

The Georgia Charitable Solicitations Act of 1988, as amended, regulates the solicitation and collection of charitable contributions in Georgia. Unless exempted by provisions of this Act, organizations and individuals that solicit contributions from the public for charitable purposes are required to register with the Secretary of State, and to disclose financial statements and other facts relating to the organization. The Act allows the Secretary of State to take action against those persons and firms who violate its provisions.

PAID SOLICITOR - A paid solicitor is a person other than a commercial coventurer who, for compensation, performs for a charitable organization any service in connection with which contributions are, or will be, solicited within or from this state. A paid solicitor shall also include any fund raising counsel who at any time has custody of contributions from a solicitation. A bona fide salaried officer, employee, or volunteer of a charitable organization is not considered to be a paid solicitor. [O.C.G.A 43-17-2(12)]

SOLICITOR AGENT – is any person, other than a charitable organization, paid solicitor, or commercial coventurer, who or which solicits charitable contributions for compensation. A solicitor agent shall register with the Secretary of State prior to engaging in any solicitation. [O.C.G.A 43-17-2(16)]

FUND-RAISING COUNSEL - A fund-raising counsel is any person other than a paid solicitor required to register under this chapter, who plans, advises, consults, or prepares material for a solicitation of charitable contributions within, into, or from this state and who does not either:
(A) Solicit such contributions or employ, procure, engage, direct, or supervise any compensated person to solicit such contributions; or
(B) Have custody or control of contributions. A natural person who is a volunteer, employee, or salaried officer of a charitable organization is not a fundraising counsel with respect to the charitable organization of which he or she is a volunteer, individual, or officer. An attorney, accountant, investment counselor, or banker who, solely incidental to his or her profession, renders professional services to a charitable organization, paid solicitor, or fundraising counsel or advises a person to make a charitable contribution is not a fundraising counsel as a result of such advice. [O.C.G.A. 43-17-2(9)]

A fundraising counsel who at any time has custody of contributions from a solicitation for a charitable purpose must be registered as a paid solicitor and comply with the provisions of this Code section. [O.C.G.A. 43-17-3(b)]
